Fusion 9 brings to Chennai, Chef Olaf Niemeier, a master craftsman all the way from Germany, whose culinary creations are compared to Picasso's paintings world over. Fusion 9 will host a weeklong fine-dining experience 'Art You Can Eat'

personally designed by Chef Olaf who is visiting the restaurant for the second time, on popular demand. Chef Olaf picks exceptional varieties from different cultures, making fusion cuisine exciting. The dishes will reflect a combination Eastern and Western spices, fresh products available, and his expert culinary skills. Fusion 9 and Chef Olaf promise to tantalize your taste buds with delicious appetizers like crispy honey soy marinated chicken breast with a spicy mango salad, Tian of roasted bell peppers flavoured with cumin kiwi salsa. The chef also offers his signatures soups to alongside the appetizers. Indulge in a wide range of mains like salmon roulade served on a wasabi prawn mash potatoes green veggies and a teriyaki green peppercorn sauce, garlic cinnamon spice rubber braised chicken served with crunchy tamarind peanut sauce and gravy and much more. For the dessert lovers, there is cardamom flavoured chocolate curd creme brulee with exotic fruit salad, tequila mousse with marinated lime segments and other delicacies. Chef Olaf Niemeier says, 'My creations have much in common with Picasso's paintings. Picasso was instrumental in heaving the classical art to a new level by using modern techniques and toying with contorted lines and unusual abstract objects. Similarly, I use dishes and transform them into modern - blended opposites. It is the exceptional variety within the different cultures, which makes my fusion cuisine so exciting. Quelle: <http://www.buzzintown.com/chennai/events/art-you-can-eat-chef-olaf-niemeier/id--810621.html>
